

THE IMPORTANCE OF MANAGING YOUR UTILITY COSTS

Utility costs have one of the largest effects on a building’s bottom line—often 20-30% of the budget. However, there are ways in which these utility charges can be recouped and reduced.

UNDERTAKE A COMPREHENSIVE ANALYSIS

Why a utility bill audit is mission critical to your organization.

Drag on income

Billing errors, incorrect rate structures, meter miscalculations and operational inefficiencies negatively impact your net profit.

Multiplier effect

$1 in reduced annual utility costs can translate into $20 of capital value.

Integrity of your data

Even one data points’ error can cause big shifts in benchmarking data which can affect Leed Certification and EnergyStar reporting.

Operational inefficiencies

These can go on for months—even years—and identifying them is crucial to the sustainability goals of your company.
